PLANNING NEW MEXICAN ROLE

Conflicting Reports Leave Fate of Carranza In Doubt

CARRANZA'S FLIGHT

Rebels Claim Capture of Matamoeas —Anticipate Counter Revolution of Ex President's Followers

Reports of progress in the political organization of the new Mexican revolution were received in Washington yesterday but the situation of the deposed President, Carranza, remained undefined.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz said he was fighting off the revolutionists at a point near San Marcos, about half way between the capital and Vera Cruz, but no report, official or otherwise, came from Mexico City to contradict claims of revolutionary agents in the United States that he had been captured.

The last reports received by the State Department from the Embassy at Mexico City was a report dated May 9, but communication by wireless has been established and instructions sent to the Charge d'Affaires to communicate fully. The dispatches received related to the flight of Carranza, who was reported to have taken with him 27,000,000 pesos in Government funds.

Luis Cabrera, chief of Carranza's Cabinet, is one member of the official family who appears to have escaped by independent route. According to the revolutionists, Cabrera covered his departure from the capital for three days by leaving a written statement for newspaper men who were in the habit of seeing him every day. He was stopped by the revolutionists at Chihuahua, they said, but permitted to continue to the American frontier, and upon the instructions of General Obregon offered money for his expenses.

The addition of Matamoros, opposite Brownsville, Texas, to the list of rebel control in the towns was reported to the revolutionary agents here. Their report said also that Antonio Villareal long a political exile, was on his way to Monterey to assume charge.

The revolutionary agents here admitted that until Carranza and his followers were accounted for and General Manuel Dieguez and his small command west of Irputo disposed of, there would remain the neuclei of a counter revolution.

EASTER WHITE WEDDING

A wedding of interest to a number in this city was that of Miss Julia Gibson Easter to Mr. John Ellington White, Jr., of Anderson, S. C., which took place yesterday in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank J. Martin, 1329 Emerson street, Washington. The ceremony was performed at noon by the father of the bridegroom, the Rev. John Ellington White, of Anderson, S. C. The bride was attended by her two young nieces little Misses Andrea Martin and Frances Rumsey. The best man was Mr. John C. Easter, brother of the bride. The house was handsomely decorated with spring blossoms, white predominating in the bower of green, under which the bridal party stood for the ceremony. A string orchestra played the wedding music. A buffet breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor, trimmed with rose point lace, and a white picture hat. She carried lilies of the valley and orchids, and her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. The flower girls wore white organdie and carried baskets of sweetheart roses. The bride and bridegroom left in the afternoon for a trip north before settling in their new home in Anderson, the bride wearing a suit of dark blue tricotine, with small blue hat, and a corsage of lilies of the valley. The bride is a descendant of the first bishop of Maryand, Bishop Claggett, on one side, and of Governor Thomas King Carroll, also of Maryland. Among the out of town guests, in addition to the father of the bridegroom, was his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce White, of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. W. H. L. Nelms, of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Buddin, of Alexandria. The groom is a nephew of Mrs. Buddin, and his parents have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buddin in Rosemont, this week, as has also Mrs Nelms.

Program Complete

Elaborate Plans Made to Entertain Delegates to State Retail Association

The Retail Merchants Bureau of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce held their regular monthly meeting last night. A large number of members were in attendance.

This meeting was largely devoted to perfecting arrangements for the entertainment of the Virginia State Retail Merchants Association, which will be the guests of this association and will hold their annual meeting here on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, May 19 and 20, at which time it is expected that approximately one hundred delegates will be in attendance. A most attractive program has been arranged for this meeting, the announcement of which will appear in this paper early next week.

It was decided to place signs on all roads leading into Alexandria beginning from a distance of ten (10) miles from this city, the signs displaying the slogan "Shop in Alexandria" and give the distance from that point to the city These signs will be constructed and put up in the immediate future.

Reports from members indicated a sucessful "Dollar Day" sale yesterday.

HISTORICAL POINTS IN ALEXANDRIA

Tentative Data Submitted by Chamber of Commerce

SEEK OTHER DATA

Information of Other Points of Historical Interest Will be Gladly Received

The Alexandria Chamber of Commerce submits herewith some tentative data concerning historical places in Alexandria and vicinity before and during the Revolutionary War period, and would be glad to have any reliable data that any citizen may have in order that a complete compilation may be made.

Christ Church—Cameron and Columbus Streets, Geo. Washington regularly attended during and after the Revolution and was a vestryman; Robert E. Lee was confirmed here in 1853 and likewise was a pew holder; Many patriots of the Revolution attended this church and Pohick.

Carlye House—S. E. Cor. Cameron near Fairfax Street, Here the first suggestion was made for Colonial Taxation, by the British General Braddock, to Lord North's Government; Here, in the famous Council of Governors, plans were laid for the disastrous Braddock Campaign, intended to wrest the continent from the French; Here Washington and Carlyle were given commissions on Braddock's Staff.

City Hotel—Formerly Gadsby's Tavern, S. W. Cor. Cameron and Royal Streets, Here Washington first met the Widow Custis; Here were held the celebrated social functions of which George and Martha Washington were the central figures; Here John Paul Jones and Lafayette first met; Here Washington gave his last military order to the Virginia Militia, who were later to face England in a second war.

Washington's Headquarters — Adjoining City Hotel, 'Clagett's Tavern', 132 North Royal Street, Washington recruited his first command here in 1754; Thence Washington started on the march to Great Meadows and saved the remnants of Braddock's Army.

Site of Washington's "Town House" lot No. 508 Cameron Street near Pitt. Had a paid secretary here to look after visitors to Mt. Vernon; His niece, Mrs. Geo. Washington, afterwards resided here.

Site of Old Colonial Jail—Site of present police headquarters. Here Jeremiah Moore, a "stroller," was imprisoned for "Preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ without license", and preached through the latticed doors.

Site of Old Colonial Court House—N. W. Cor. of Market Square. Here, before Justice (Col.) Broadwater, Patrick Henry defended Jeremiah Moore in 1773 thus securing his release from "life imprisonment". Here was probably presented the "Fairfax County Resolves," by Geo. Mason, in 1774, first suggesting religious liberty. Here in 1783, probably was held, Washington participating, the first meeting which led to the great Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia.

Washington's Free School—S. E. Cor. Washington and Wolfe Streets. This was the first free school in Virginia, and endowed by Washington. "Light Horse Harry" sent his son Robert E. Lee, to this school in 1811 and afterwards to Hallowell's School opposite Mr. C. C. Carlin's home.

House of "Light Horse Harry" Lee—611 Cameron Street—near Washington. Lee was as ardent a supporter of the Federal Power in Government as afterwards his son, Robert E. supported States' Rights. Lee always defended Washington in political contests, and in a memorial address used the words "First in War, First in Peace, etc."

House of Gen. Robordeau—418 S. Lee Street, near Wilkes. Who came with Lafayette from France to aid in the Revolution. Who became one of Washington's Generals.

House of Dr. James Craik—210 Duke Street between Lee and Fairfax. Was surgeon under Washington in the French and Indian War. Was Surgeon-General in the Continental Army even to Yorktown. Washington frequently dined with "My Old Friend, Dr. Craik." Craik was summoned to the death bed of Washington and his wife.

House of Dr. Dick—209 Prince Street, between Lee and Fairfax. Was one of the physicians with Washington when he died. Officiated at Masonic Service at Washington's funeral. Was converted to the belief of the Quakers and threw his dueling pistols in the Potomac. His grave is in the Quaker Cemetery on Queen street.

First Presbyterian Church—Fairfax between Duke and Wolfe Streets. Here is buried Rev. Dr. Muir pastor, who officiated at Washington's funeral as chaplain of the Masonic Lodge. Here is buried John Carlyle, who fought for England against France, and fought with Washington against England, losing a son in the battle of Eutaw Springs, S. C. Here is buried Dr. James Craik probably the most intimate friend of George Washington. Here is buried, with other heroes, General Robordeau, who braved the displeasure of the French Government to help in the Revolution.

Lafayette House.—Cor. Duke and St. Asaph Streets, Here was entertained Lafayette in 1824.

Relics in Washington Lodge—In Market Square. The old clock which was stopped by an attending physi-

Y. M. C. A. BOARD MEETING TONIGHT

Headquarters Now in Westminster Building

CLEARANCE HOUSE

Members to Meet K. E. Wallace Who Is Now In Charge of The Work in Alexandria.

C. C. Lamond, president of the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, has called a meeting of the board tonight at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. It is understood that the ministers of the city are invited to meet with the board in order that they may have an opportunity to meet the new general secretary, Mr. K. E. Wallace, who has just lately come to take up the work in Alexandria.

The headquarters of the Association are located in the Westminister Building where Mr. Wallace has already established an office. A telephone is to be installed at once and it is planned to make the office a clearing house for the social service activities of the churches of the city, as far as they desire to use its good offices. Mr. Wallace explained that he was simply an assistant pastor to any minister of the city that desired to use his services, and as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., he was glad to so serve.

It is expected that a full attendance of the board and most of the ministers will greet the new secretary at the first meeting tonight.

HEALTH OFFICER SHOULD ACT NOT TALK

(Communicated)

Breeding season now well under way, action should have been taken sooner.

In the Alexandria Gazette of May 11, we took particular interest in an article written by Health Officer Foulks, in which he stated that filth breeds flies.

The writer would like to ask what has been done by his department to stamp out this pest, as we have long since discovered that action rather than words is necessary.

Particularly we would call his attention to the Northwestern section of this city, where the water is lying in the guters in this section, and is green with filth and vermine which he says breeds flys. We might call his attention to the fact that this is the city's duty fully as well as the peoples.

The residents of this city will be very glad to take their share of this burden if they can be sure of any cooperation from the health department.

The streets, alleys and sidewalks of this town are not in any condition to be proud of, especially we would recommend that the health officer look into some of the back alleys in the above section, where he can see the reason for disease and flies. To my knowledge nothing is being done about these things up to the present writing.

Although the newspaper is a very good medium, a personel talk with the people would be received with much more gratifying results and results are what the people are looking for.

The health officer say, "If there was no filth about there would be no flies, It can thus readily be seen that the fly question is entirely in our own hands.", we take it for granted that "our own hands" includes his hands, though we must say that if the officer ever had the solution in his hands he must have opened them and let it drop.

The manure and garbage piles of which he speaks not only lie around on personal property, but also on public thoroughfares as well, we have got to get these.

The sale opened yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, continuing last night, this afternoon and tonight, and owing to the inclemency of the weather the hall will be open from 10 a. m., to 7 p. m., tomorrow, Friday.

For Colored School

Subscription For Equipment For The New School Building

The Snowden School Alumni and friends are at work raising money to equip some of the rooms of the new school.

Many things will be needed, namely —seats for the auditorium, furniture for the room for temporary treatment of sick pupils or teachers, maps, globes, charts and numerous other things.

We feel that it is the unbounded duty of the colored citizens to aid in this matter in order to show their appreciation of this grand work.

The building is very nearly completed and our part has just begun.

Please send in your subscription now. If no one has approached you on this matter, consider this and appeal to you to give and give freely,

Let every colored man in this city who has children in school or who has the education of our children at heart give to this worthy cause.

Remember, this school is for our children.

We want to raise $1000. The drive is on. Give and give liberally.

The names of persons contributing will be published in the Alexandria Gazette from time to time.

Send your contributions to R. D. Lyles, 616 South Columbus street, who will send you a receipt for same.

The following persons have contributed thus far:

A public reception will be given in the M. E. Church South tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock to the presiding elder Rev. Dr. H. P. Hammond and Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester, pastor of that church. All members, especially the new members of that church are invited to attend.

A week or so ago several youths were brought before the Police Court to answer the charge of throwing baseballs in the streets to the annoyance of residents and passers-by. They had previously been warned by the officer, but renewed the diversion when they supposed he had left the neighborhood. The policeman was in a nearby alley, however, and reappearing placed all under arrest. They were fined a nominal amount and admonished. Yesterday half a dozen or more young men were arraigned on a similar charge. They also had nominal amounts assessed against them and warned of the consequences of using the streets for ball throwing when there are plenty of nearby places where this sport can be indulged in.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear father, Messiah Drumheller, who, departed this life 3 years ago today, May 13, 1917.

It was hard to give you up dear father.
And I miss you more than tongue can tell.
But I know thou art resting
In that home where Jesus dwells,
I may smile when some think I should weep,
Why should I weep for the dear father,
For thou art gone to rest I loved you,
But Jesus loved you best.

By his daughter, Louise.

AN UNJUST CHARGE

In times of trouble people imagine vain things. While the cholera was raging in Paris in the thirties of the last century many people in the afflicted city strangely supposed the physicians were responsible, it being believed that the practitioners prescribed drugs which accelerated the progress of the plague. They also credited a rumor that certain persons were creeping about in Paris with ships watching opportunities to place poison in the tankards. Lynchings were common while such senseless reports were being circulated. This mobbing of Goliath, so graphically described by Eugene Sue in his "Wandering Jew", though fictitious had its birth in realities.

Some proprietors of certain establishments in this city have, it is said, placed the blame for the passing of slot machines to the Salvation Army.

It should be unnecessary for us to state that the members of this worthy organization have enough to do in bearing the burdens of others, hence they have neither the time nor the inclination to mix with the affairs of the city or state.

It was plainly stated yesterday that the grand jury of the Corporation Court took the initial steps towards the elimination of certain slot machines which are used for gambling purposes. The second act in the movement was performed last Tuesday night when the City Council called the attention of the police department to the state law in relation to gambling by the use of slot machines, and the Gazette was requested to print the statute which appeared yesterday.

Our Great Teacher upon one occasion, while addressing his disciples said: "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you." Our friends of the Salvation Army, who are familiar with these words, doubtless realize their application in their case.

The builders of the walls of Jerusalem after the seventy years' captivity were annoyed by enemies. They replied by saying, "we are too high up and cannot come down to you." The Salvation Army is in a similar position—they cannot come down and thereby neglect the noble work in which they are engaged.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER

The rainy and cold conditions of yesterday and last night, following high temperature Tuesday, were in evidence again today. The wind still held to the northeast, and persons who had laid aside winter underwear or overcoats found the same comfortable. The Weather Report published last night said present cool conditions will continue.

Over a century has passed since a phenomenally cool summer was experienced in the United States. In the year 1816 frost prevailed every month, and all little could be grown. What has happened before is liable to happen again, and the suggestion we are about to make is likely to causes a chill to pass down the backs of [illegible] to keep their heads above water in the perilous times through which the world is passing. Under present conditions [illegible] the production of cereals is inevitable. Shortage of farm labor is generally given as the explanation. With decreased productions assured already, imagine the distress which would overshadow our land should meteorological conditions bring about an almost total failure of crops this year.

Flour is constantly advancing in price, and some careful observers say it may reach $25 per barrel before the snow begins to fly.

We recently read a book entitled "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalyse," the quaternion of steeds sent forth in the latter days which are to bring distress over the entire world. The red horse (war) has recently played its part. The second (black, significant of famine), may make its dash, and add materially to the prevailing distress of nations.

50% More Mileage

In Boston, Green & Swett Co. watched the Miller records on some hundreds of large cars. They found that Millers increased the former tire mileage from 50% to 75%. They eliminated blow-out troubles. And only six tires in each 1,000 proved disappointing to the users.

$1,000 Daily
To Reduce Your Tire Cost

The Miller Tire mileage, now discussed everywhere, is not an accident.

Over $1,000 daily is spent in tests and inspections. Fifty inspectors guard against defects.

Every lot of tread stock is first vulcanized and tested in the laboratory.

Over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in factory mileage tests.

Every tire is signed by maker and inspector, and both are penalized if a tire falls down.

Highly-paid experts spend their years in making betterments.

Mark the results

The Miller Tire is now talked everywhere. It is today's sensation.

It is winning countless contests where a score of makes are brought into comparison.

In the factory tests—radical rear-wheel tests—Miller cords last year averaged 15,000 miles.

The new Miller treads, in these tests, outwear the best of others by 25%.

Defective Miller Tires are a rarity. Some large Miller dealers last year had not a single adjustment.

If you don't know these new-day tires you should find them out. They are saving millions of dollars to motorists.

Get one and watch it. It will give you new conceptions of a modern tire.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Fire caused by sparks from a passing locomotive Tuesday destroyed another locomotive, large quantities of material and a portion of a roundhouse at the Norfolk and Western yards, one mile from Roanoke. The damage was estimated at between two hundred and fifty thousand and three hundred thousand.

Judge Richardson yesterday in Hustings Court, of Richmond, refused to set aside the verdict in the case of J. J. Oliver, State prohibition agent, appealed from Accomac County, who was convicted here of transporting ardent spirits in an automobile for the purpose of sale. Oliver was fined $250 and given 30 days in jail.

Resolutions commending the action of the Richmond Bar Association in drafting and offering to the last general assembly a bill defining the practice of law and prohibiting its practice by laymen, corporations and firms, were adopted yesterday afternoon by the Virginia State Bar Association in annual session at the Jefferson Hotel, Richmond. This action followed lengthy discussion. Eppa Hunton, Jr., of Richmond, formerly of Fauquier County, questioned the wisdom of the convention adopting the resolutions and committing the body to a definite course of action. "It was an attempt," he said, "to legislate morality and ethics into the practice of law along the lines of a movement now raging to the damnation of this country to legislate for everything." The bill in question failed of passage.

The sixteenth annual convention of the Grand Chapter of Virginia, Order of Eastern Star, opened in Petersburg Tuesday night with Chas. T. Lassister delivering the address of welcome, in an informal session. Delegates numbering nearly 400 from every section of the State, were in attendance, and more were expected in time for yesterday's business session.

COUNTERFEIT STAMP

Be on Lookout for 1919 War Savings Counterfeit Says Postmaster

Postmaster Wm. Smith today issued a warning to thrifty persons hereabouts to be on their guard against buying counterfeit War Savings Stamps. Fraudulent blue stamps of the 1919 series have been made by counterfeiters, the postmaster has been advised, and are being sold to the unwary.

"But the frauds can be easily detected," the postmaster said. "Ben Franklin's picture appears on the stamp, and in the counterfeit stamp, Old Ben seems to have the mumps in his left jaw. Indeed there is a pronounced swelling. Then under the portrait the lower of the two left dots is comparatively indistinct, and the vertical opening between the lines in the lower left part of the numeral '2' in the date '1924' is closed. The principal feature of the fraud, however, is the swollen cheek.

"It should be remembered that the counterfeit is only of the 1919 series and, like the original is blue. Blue War Savings Stamps can no longer be bought from post office or other authorized agencies. Only the 1920 stamps, which are red, and now being sold by agencies. Sales of last year's stamps are not legal. No one should buy a 1919 stamp ,though it is true that some have been improperly offered for sale.

"Everyone who bought 1919 stamps last year may feel perfectly safe," the postmaster said in conclusion, 'because the counterfeit was not made until after the first of this year. The blue stamps had then been withdrawn from sale by the authorized agencies, and the red 1920 stamp was being sold. Don't buy any 1919 stamps, and keep a look out for the picture of the man with the mumps. If you see one let me know."

How to Destroy a Good Disposition

Bad digestion will ruin the best disposition. If the world looks dark and blue, if you feel as if you never wanted to smile again, if you are generally "out of sorts" and feel gloomy, stuffed up and uncomfortable, just take a Foley Cathartic Tablet. Relieves mean headaches, biliousness, bloating, sour stomach, constipation and other ills that follow disordered digestion. This fine and wholesome physic sweetens the stomach and invigorates the liver. Cleanses the bowels without gripping or nausea.

LURED TO BUY LIQUOR

Chauffeur Who Acted for Dry Agent Declared no Law Violater

Boston, May 13.—United States Commissioner Hayes yesterday ruled that when a person is induced by a prohibition agent to buy liquor for the agent and does not himself profit by the transaction he does not violate the law.

The ruling came in disposing of the case of Morris Barenboim, a taxi driver, who was arrested in Lawrence two weeks ago after four prohibition agents had induced him to obtain liquor for them. The man was discharged.

SHARP BREAK IN FLOUR

Is Re-Elected to Senate by Margin of 6,750 Votes

A break in the flour market here since the latter part of February occurred yesterday when standard flour declined 50 cents a barrel to $15.75.

Since February 21, when flour sold for $13.25 a barrel in 98-pound cotton sacks in carload lots, it has made steady increases of 25 to 50 cents a barrel. A quiet flour market, with weaker wheat prices is said to be responsible for today's decreased prices.

Diamond Squeegee Tread TIRES

EVERY Diamond Tire on a car—and there are 2,000,000 in use—means that somebody has walked into a dealer's store and bought it—

Often to replace another brand of tire.

This fact is obvious since Diamond Tires do not come as original equipment on cars.

In short, actual service on cars has proved to users that the utmost tire value lies in Diamond Tires.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Surest Thing in the World

Two and two have always made four. There would not be more than three million five hundred thousand Ford cars in daily service—which is just about one-half of all the automobiles in America—if the Ford, as a reliable motor car, did not meet the demands of all classes of people everywhere and under all circumstances.

Two and two have always made four. If the material, the iron and the marvelous Vanadium steel used in the construction of the Ford chassis, were not of the highest quality known to the science of Metallurgy, then the Ford car could not have won its world-wide reputation for reliability.

Two and two have always made four. When replacements and repairs are required on Ford cars, the Ford owner will be wise in bringing his car to our place because we use only the Genuine Ford Parts, and we have the Ford skilled mechanics, and all the Ford knowledge that goes to maintain the high standard of quality which is original in the Ford car.

When you want a Ford car or a Ford truck, and when you want repairs or replacements for the same, we earnestly solicit your business, assuring you of prompt attention, real Ford service, and economical Ford prices.

Birmingham, Ala., May 13.—Representative J. Thomas Heflin forged ahead of his two opponents for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator from Alabama for the short term as additional returns were received yesterday from yesterday's state-wide primary.

Senator Underwood, who is up for re-nomination, on the basis of incomplete returns compiled by the Birmingham News from 65 of the 67 counties had a lead of 6,750 votes over L. B. Musgrove, the Union Labor and "dry" candidate.

Estimates from 21 counties received by the News gave Heflin a plurality of approximately 5,000 over former Governor O'Neal, his nearest opponent, Capt. Frank S. White, on the same returns, was a close third.

CAME DOWN

You sick people who objected to climbing up to my former third floor office can now find me on the ground floor, where I am prepared to give you up to date chiropractic adjustments for acute or chronic diseases. You with High Blood Pressure, Arterio, Sclerosis, Heart, Stomach and Kidney Trouble, Headache, Flu, or it after effects, do you know that statistics show chiropractic losses in thousand of flue and pneumonia cases was less than 1 death in 885—whereas by the drug method the loss was as high as 18 per cent.

How do you account for all the cases of heart failure, paralytic strokes, nervousness, neurasthenia, dope fiends, etc., well, you don't get those if you take chiropractic adjustments. Remember I am right here handy with the best of goods, so you don't need to go to Washington.
